Week 4 - Jesus

Sunday, December 20 • Pastor Mark Gold

15 He stayed there until Herod's death, so that what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet might be fulfilled: Out of Egypt I called My Son. 16 Then Herod, when he saw that he had been outwitted by the wise men, flew into a rage. He gave orders to massacre all the male children in and around Bethlehem who were two years old and under, in keeping with the time he had learned from the wise men. 17 Then what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: 18 A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children; and she refused to be consoled, because they were no more.

The first time He came

It was a surprise
Few eyes saw Him
He came as a Lamb
He came to redeem
He came to die
He rode on a donkey
He wore a crown of thorns
He shed his robe
He came in poverty
He came with the angels
He came in meekness
He came in humility
He came as a sower
He was crucified
He was despised and rejected

When He comes again

It will be a surprise
Every eye will see Him
He'll come as a Lion
He'll come to reign
He'll come to raise the dead
He'll ride on a white horse
He'll wear the crown of glory
He'll put on the judges robe
He'll come in power
He'll come with the saints
He'll come in majesty
He'll come in glory
He'll come as a harvester
He'll be coronated
Every knee will bow and every tongue will confess
